Old Legion building is an 'eyesore'

HONITON'S derelict Royal British Legion building has become an "awful eyesore" that will blight the town unless urgent action is taken to develop the site, frustrated residents have warned.

The former community hall – one of Honiton's most distinctive and popular venues – has fallen into a state of severe disrepair and is now being monitored by police.

Almost four years after it was suddenly closed, angry residents are seeking answers about the building's future.

They say the neglected hall is being "laid to waste" and that it reflects badly on the town.

Tony Smith, 76, a former member of the Legion's Honiton branch, lives in Ashleigh Road only a few hundred yards from the building. He said he was saddened to see it in its current condition.

"I grew up in east London during the Second World War. My father was away fighting and we didn't see much of him, but when he came home one of the first things he did was re-enlist at the local Legion club," he said.

by Jack Dixon

"Here in Honiton it was a real part of the community. There was an elderly lady who lived near me who had her lunch there every day. When they closed it down she didn't know what to do. That was the impact it had.

"It's now absolutely derelict and for a long time the main entrance was a tip. I'm quite surprised the town council has done nothing about it.

"It's a real worry for the people who live nearby – they have no idea what's going on there."

Chris Sinden, president of the Honiton branch, added: "The building is just laying there wasting. We are very frustrated about it. There is also some civic concern about it and we are keeping our fingers on the pulse – but unfortunately we are powerless."

The building is a charitable asset held in trust for the Honiton branch but owned by the Legion's central office, which hopes to sell off the land for residential development.

Planning permission was granted two years ago for eight new homes on the site but development has been set back by delays in the legal process.

Mick Robson, chairman of the Honiton branch, explained that the building – like many other RBL properties across the country – had to be taken off the market because the provision for selling it was not written into the original trust agreement.

He said: "Ultimately, the decision on whether the building can be sold now rests with the Charities Commission. I believe that the RBL legal team are still building a case to put before the commission."

Repeated attempts were made to contact the RBL's head office last week but a spokesman could not be reached for comment.

In the meantime the building is falling deeper into disrepair and is now being watched closely by Honiton's neighbourhood police team following a break-in last December.

A vandal forced his way inside the building, squatted for a number of days and caused major damage before fleeing with hundreds of pounds worth of wartime memorabilia.

PCSO Steve Mingo confirmed that no further criminal incidents have been reported since the break-in but that officers continue to monitor the building.

He said: "There have been issues in the past year at the location although these have now been resolved and the individuals concerned have been dealt with. The Honiton neighbourhood police team continues to monitor the building along with other locations around the town. We would ask the public to remain vigilant and call us if they witness incidents of criminal damage."

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER

Mayor backs 'one issue' policy at town forum

AXMINSTER Mayor Douglas Hull says restricting public forum at town council meetings will not erode the democratic process as there are efficient alternatives available.

Regular town council attendee David Samways slammed the mayor for only allowing one issue per person, saying: "What is the point of having a council meeting open to the public if you are not allowed to say anything?"

"That is what the town council used to be about: answering people's questions.

"You are not going to encourage people to come to council if there are no questions."

Town forum is the part of the meeting where members of the public can address councillors by raising matters of concern and ask questions.

The duration of town forum has always been "at the discretion of the mayor," but previous post holders have – albeit sometimes reluctantly – allowed more than one issue per person.

But Mayor Douglas Hull introduced the one item per person rule when installed last month.

He told Pulman's View: "Town forum is open to the mayor's pleasure. I had to make my mind up as to whether or not we sit there and go through numerous things stoked up for a month.

"We have a council to run and sometimes the questions go on and on."

He stressed that he has a weekly surgery on Thursday mornings in the Guildhall, and that the town council office is staffed by people who are happy to log any issues and subsequently inform himself or involve any other relevant person or authority.

From the editor's chair Letting the public speak

AS a critic of local government, people have often said to me "instead of moaning about it, why don't you put up for council yourself"?

That would be a bit difficult in East Devon as I don't live in the area – but I did try it once in my home town, serving for one four-year period and rising to the dizzy heights of mayor for one year. In fact, I was the town's youngest mayor at 34, a rather dubious record I still hold.

It was much easier being a councillor in those days. There was very little politics around and there was much less consultation with – and scrutiny by – the public. If you did a poor job, you got voted out at the next election.

Today, the electorate have a much greater say, particularly during public sessions at council meetings where they have their own forum.

We like these sessions because they often produce better stories than the council debates. But they often add greatly to how long a council meeting takes. The new town mayor in Axminster, Douglas Hull, has put his foot down and is allowing a member of the public to speak only on one subject, encouraging them to attend his weekly surgery and not allowing problems to fester for three weeks.

Brave man!

● GLOWING tributes have been made this week from all quarters of Ottery St Mary following the death of John Gaffney, a true community champion.

As editor of the greatly admired Ottery Gazette community magazine, John provided a much needed service, giving superb support to the town's many community groups.

When Pulman's View launched into Ottery, we soon became aware that the Ottery Gazette was the bible as far as the town was concerned and we would never emulate its success.

The economics of running newspapers in this day and age make it impossible to compete with parish publications like the Gazette.

Hopefully, it will continue to fill that void.

Philip Evans

OTTERY ST MARY Town mourns its community champion

HEARTFELT tributes have been paid to one of Ottery St Mary's most dedicated community champions, John Gaffney, who died suddenly of a heart attack last week.

Friends, family members and readers of his monthly parish magazine, the Ottery Gazette, remembered him as a "true gentleman" and a selfless community servant dedicated to the town.

Local councillors, business owners and community leaders were united in honouring an "irreplaceable" individual who played a huge part in supporting the town's clubs and organisations and was made 'Citizen of the Year' in 2014.

Mayor of Ottery, Councillor Glyn Dobson, said Mr Gaffney's death would be a "great loss" to the town.

"John will be truly missed," he said.

SIDMOUTH Vandals target Blackmore Gardens

"MINDLESS" vandals have caused hundreds of pounds worth of damage to unique floral displays in Blackmore Gardens – just a few weeks before Britain in Bloom judges arrive to inspect the town.

Community leaders have called on visitors to Sidmouth's beautiful gardens to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the police, following two separate incidents last week.

An intricate 'Wind in the Willows' display, featuring a half-ton toad sculpture, was ripped up and thrown to the ground overnight on Monday, less than 24 hours after a Loch Ness Monster figure was also knocked down.

Sidmouth in Bloom volunteers, who spent the following day replanting the displays, say up to £200 worth of damage was caused.

"This is mindless destruction," said Lynette Talbot, chairman of the Sidmouth in Bloom committee.

SOUTH SOMERSET Broadband decision to be made behind closed doors

A MASSIVE £640,000 broadband decision will be taken behind closed doors by South Somerset District Council (SSDC).

The crunch special meeting of the District Executive will be held at SSDC headquarters on Thursday, June 25th.

But the updated, 20-page plus meeting report is confidential and members of the press and public will be asked to leave the chamber while councillors decide whether to contribute £640,000 to the roll-out of superfast broadband.

On June 4th the District Executive decided to seek more information before deciding on whether or not to stick to a commitment in principle made last year.

Going green

■ PUPILS from Littleton Primary Academy were encouraged to follow a greener lifestyle on a visit to two of the county's biggest waste facilities.

Members of the school council and house captains took part in the trip, which aimed to demonstrate what happens to our rubbish.

The children visited the new Energy from Waste plant in Exeter, before stopping at the Heathfield landfill site near Kingsteignton.

Heidi Diepold, waste education officer at Devon County Council, said: "This day has been an eye-opening experience for the children to see first hand what happens to their waste.

"Most people forget about their rubbish as soon as they put it out for the council to collect – this visit shows the next stage of the journey.

"Hopefully it will encourage them to think before they throw something away."

New role for MP Neil Parish

by Jack Dixon

HONITON MP Neil Parish is to take up a key role in scrutinising the government's agricultural policy.

Mr Parish, who increased his majority in the general election last month, will head up the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs select committee, after winning the support of fellow MPs.

The committee will examine the work of the Department for Food and Rural Affairs (Defra) over the course of the next parliament.

The Conservative MP, who served as a member of the committee during the coalition, has championed himself as a "strong voice for British farming".

He won the unanimous support of MPs when nominations closed on June 10th, with no other candidates stepping forward to challenge him for the position.

Speaking after the announcement, he said: "I am very pleased to have been nominated as chair of the EFRA committee.

"Over the past five years, I have enjoyed being a member of the committee and I look forward to helping make sure that issues concerning our countryside, environment, flooding and food security are properly dealt with.

"I also look forward very much to working with parliamentary colleagues across the parties to contribute to shaping policy in those areas."

He added: "We want to make sure the government really delivers, through the Defra department, really good policies.

"I am also very much looking forward to working with the public to hear their ideas about how they would like to see the committee take some action to come up with a cleaner environment, greater food security and prosperous farming in this country."

Alongside his new role, Mr Parish also serves on the all-party parliamentary groups on dairy, beef and lamb, and eggs, pigs and poultry.

■ HELPING HAND | Youngsters from the 1st Honiton Scouts group invited generous community donors to the Scout Hall last week to see at first hand how their money has been spent.

Members of The Vine Social Club named the Scouts as their Charity of the Year in 2014 and passed on a £600 donation.

And children from the Leonard Beavers group recently welcomed the club's Mike Foxwell, Richard Isaac and Pete Hawley to show off their new equipment, which included 28 compasses, a set of cooking utensils, a toolbox and a carbon monoxide detector.

Scout leader Helen Turner thanked the club for its kind donation and said the items would be used by all sections of the Scout group.

RESIDENTS at Magnolia House in Axminster took part in their annual quiz, with nearly 100 residents from three other care homes around Pulman's Country also taking part. The top three quizzers won themselves lunch at The Hare & Hounds in Sidbury

Next phase of Stop Line Way

WORK on a new phase of the Stop Line Way walking and cycling route, between Seaton and Colyford, got under way on Monday, June 8th, writes Anders Larsson.

Devon County Council says it will take 16 weeks to complete the one-kilometre off-road connection from the cemetery, near Marsh Lane, in Seaton, to Colyford Common, near the junction of Seaton Road/Popes Lane in Colyford.

The route was granted planning permission in September 2011.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highway Management, said: "This is another important step in the development of The Stop Line Way as it continues to take shape, and this trail is a major asset in Devon's growing cycle network."

"When The Stop Line Way is complete it will provide a link which will offer locals and visitors with the opportunity to explore this part of our county, and to walk and cycle safely between towns and villages. This route will also provide better access to Seaton Marsh Local Nature Reserve."

The Stop Line Way is part of the National Cycle Network, Route 33.

The proposed route closely follows, and is named after, the Second World War defences built following the evacuation of the Allies from Dunkirk as the Devon and Cornwall coast was considered too long to defend.

Many of the concrete pillboxes and anti-tank gun emplacements remain along the line and can be seen from parts of the cycle route.

Councillor Sara Randall Johnson (Honiton St Michael's Ward), said: "I'm delighted that work has finally started and I can't wait for its completion so that I can enjoy my first journey along The Stop Line Way.

"Thanks must go to the landowners and people of Colyford who have been very supportive of the route and have made it possible."

"Like them, I also hope that further progress is made as soon as possible."

Councillor Jim Knight (Seaton Coastal Ward) was equally enthusiastic and commented: "It's great to see this long-awaited facility coming to fruition to bring visitors into Seaton and the surrounding villages."

"It will also provide a safer way of walking to the cemetery that has been long awaited, as there are areas within Seaton that have no pavement."

"Families will be able to enjoy a morning or day out with the knowledge that their children will be in a safe environment."

The Stop Line Way is being developed in sections for ease of delivery.

Previous sections of the trail, which have already been completed, are: Trafalgar Way, which opened in December 2009; Aldercar, under the A35 into Kilmington parish, which has been in use since September 2011; and Cloakham to Weycroft which opened in December 2012.

In Devon, the route stretches from Seaton Promenade to the county boundary passing through Axminster and will be a largely traffic-free footway and cycleway.

A key link will be with Axminster Railway station. When complete the trail will form a 70 mile link from the Bristol Channel to Lyme Bay, passing through Devon, Somerset, and Dorset.

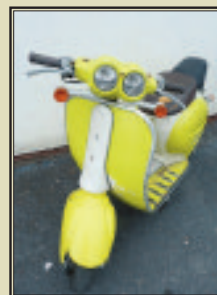

Work on the Seaton to Colyford stretch is being carried out by JTT Contracting Ltd.

County award for community volunteer

A DEDICATED community transport volunteer – hailed as “the driving force” behind Honiton’s TRIP service – has been recognised for his tireless efforts at a county hall ceremony.

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedi.co.uk

Steve Brownridge, who gives up around 20 hours of his time every week to help those in need, was named Devon’s Community Transport Volunteer of the Year.

He was selected ahead of the county’s most hardworking helpers for going the extra mile to support Honiton’s elderly residents.

Council bosses paid tribute not only to Mr Brownridge’s day-to-day driving duties for TRIP, which is based in New Street, but also for his advice and support to fellow volunteers.

In his role as a committee member, Mr Brownridge has helped to organise variety shows and other fundraisers, as well as a Christmas lunch for 80 elderly passengers.

He also devised TRIP’s holidays service, visiting destinations across the South West and further afield to Jersey and the Isle of Wight.

“Steve organises and plans all our excursions,” said TRIP manager Neil Hurlock.

“The service that he provides gives people who until now have not been able to have a holiday the chance to get away.

“Some elderly people have real difficulty with coaches and other forms of transport, so it’s a fantastic service – people are always eager to sign up.”

Another TRIP committee member, Derek Smith, was also recognised for his efforts, picking up a volunteer award alongside Mr Brownridge at the county hall ceremony.

Mr Hurlock added: “We have a great bunch of volunteers who do a superb job, all of whom go the extra mile. But it seems like Derek goes the extra five miles!”

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council’s cabinet member for highway management, said: “This annual awards ceremony is a celebration of community transport and illustrates the positive work within our communities.

“As always we received lots of nominations and the dedication and commitment shown across Devon demonstrates what an important and highly valued service this is.”

Honiton charity backs Heroes' ride

A HONITON charity hosted a pit stop for cyclists taking part in the Ride with Heroes challenge.

Ride with Heroes is Help for Heroes' flagship cycling challenge and had one team starting from each of the four points of the compass, and all were set to arrive in Windsor on Sunday, June 21st.

Each of the four teams featured nine disabled military cyclists plus support fundraiser cyclists.

The whole event is described as "an immense demonstration of support to our troops".

The 280-mile Hero West route saw riders pedalling to Windsor from Plymouth, setting out on Wednesday, June 17th.

After riding via Dartmoor on day one, the team left Exeter at 9am the following day and headed for Honiton, the home of The Baton.

The Baton was founded by Honiton barber Alan Rowe MBE in 2009 to raise awareness and funds for the armed forces and their families.

Mr Rowe's charity was invited to support the ride, and the Honiton man described the invitation as "a significant coup," adding that he is proud to support the event and saying the link with Help for Heroes is recognition of his own charity's extensive work.

The Baton takes its name from stretcher handles used to carry wounded allied soldiers at Afghanistan's Camp Bastion, and there are currently six batons in circulation.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A total of four were carried in the Ride with Heroes challenge, one for each team.

Bryn Parry, CEO and co-founder of Help for Heroes, said prior to the event: "The Hero Ride sees cyclists from all over the country make their way to Windsor, culminating in the biggest national demonstration of support for our wounded heroes."

"By riding alongside servicemen, women and veterans who have suffered life-changing injuries the great British public will see firsthand why support is needed, so important and must endure."

"The Baton is a symbol of the ultimate sacrifice made by so many of our brave servicemen and women."

"Soldiers, sailors and airmen who are injured today will still need our support tomorrow and in the days that follow, for the rest of their lives."

Mr Rowe added, also prior to the event: "To have one of the UK's most recognised forces charities, which has achieved so much in their own way, approach us, is indeed an endorsement in the whole Baton ethos, of awareness for life in our forces and the effects of that on their families. I hope that people will turn out to give the team a warm Honiton welcome."

The Baton has fast become a symbol of remembrance for the armed forces and their families.

Since its inception, its philosophy has captured the hearts of hundreds of people both locally and worldwide who have spread the message of the Baton by taking it with them on various expeditions.

Through the Baton, thousands of pounds have been generated for military charities.

Last autumn, the Baton's 'Message of Conscience' caught the attention of Hollywood superstar Brad Pitt who took time out from filming for Second World War epic, Fury, in Oxfordshire, to hold the sixth baton, which is now based in America with custodians from the Allied Forces Foundation.

There have been many special people who have carried a Baton and its message – some have been spectacular and world record breaking events, but the same can be achieved by a dinner party, a bridge night or any other occasion where people are gathered.

Mr Rowe explained: "The Baton family is made up of ordinary people with jobs and families doing what they can, where they can, because they care.

"The initiative has progressed much further than expected – donations have been made, giving us the ability of offering immediate emergency help through SSAFA Devon, a partner charity of Help for Heroes, to those who need it."

"I'm sure that this generosity is because no wages or extravagant expenses are taken, as much a true charity as I think you can get, which we will strive to maintain."

Councillor calls for polling station changes

A SEATON town councillor says polling station arrangements has to be changed, claiming voters were given incorrect information.

Fellow councillors agreed with Dawn Squire, but it is unclear where the complaint should be sent.

In a motion tabled at the town council's June meeting, Coun-

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

cillor Squire reported her observations from May 7th and said: "The layout of Seaton's polling station needs to be reviewed.

"It was difficult to walk around the side of the polling booths due to the divider row of chairs which almost certainly compromised privacy for many people voting.

"The layout did not aide privacy when voting.

"The area surrounding polling booths was difficult to manoeuvre around, especially for those with mobility issues."

She went on to say: "I propose that we write to East

Devon District Council (EDDC) to explain our concerns and insist they review and revise the layout for future elections."

Councillor Squire added: "In addition to this we also ask that they ensure all staff appointed to Seaton are trained to the correct standard as some were overheard giving out incorrect information, which is unacceptable."

Councillor Squire alleged that some voters had been told they could vote for as many candidates as they liked.

Both proposals were carried, but EDDC says it is not to blame.

A spokesperson told Pulman's View: "Seaton came under the Mid Devon returning officer's jurisdiction for this election."

Seaton Town Council is awaiting a formal reply from EDDC.

Countdown to Lifeboat Week

THE Seaton, Beer and District Branch of the RNLI are gearing up for arguably their biggest week of the year – with the hugely popular annual Beer Lifeboat Week.

The event is launched with a street collection on Saturday, July 4th with a Brew for the Crew, also featuring a raffle, tombola, bric-a-brac and books for sale, being held from 10am to noon at the Mariners Hall.

"We are appealing for collectors to assist us on a rota basis from 8am - 6pm and people are invited to collect at a time suitable for them," said branch secretary Wendy Cummins.

In the evening there will be a quiz night at Beer Social Club (from 7:30pm for 8pm start).

The highlight on Sunday (July

5th) will be the 10th Annual Duck Race Day, which is open to all ages with registration at the RNLI sales kiosk on Top Cliff, Jubilee Gardens, by 2pm.

"There will also be a visit and display by the Lyme Regis Lifeboat 'The Spirit of Loch Fyne' at 2.30pm, subject to weather and operational requirements and, if possible, a member of the lifeboat crew will start the first duck race down Beer Brook at 3pm," added Mrs Cummins.

"The duck race prizes are to be kindly donated by local businesses and the duck art is to be judged by a visitor after the Duck Races."

On Tuesday, July 7th (from 2.30-4.30pm) cream teas will be served in the Mariners Hall, which will also host a second Brew for the Crew on Thursday, July 9th (from 10am - 12noon).

A busy week will end with a music night at the Dolphin Hotel on Friday, July 10th (from 8-11pm) comprising a variety of music and songs from the 1960s to the present day performed by Steve Graham and guests.

Money raised will complement recent successful fund-raising ventures at the '12 Hour Music Marathon' at Winston's in Seaton and a bucket collection outside Tesco Seaton.

"Once again we thank everyone for their support to our branch of the RNLI and we look forward to a busy and successful Beer Lifeboat Week," said Mrs Cummins.

Anyone wishing to help during the week should contact Mrs Cummins on 01297 23040.

“Wishing Well” – Axminster’s cancer support group.

Come along to our FREE talks

“WISHING WELL” is the newly re-launched support group for those touched by cancer and their carers. The group is hosted by the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre, Hanover House, Chard Street on Thursday afternoons from 2.30 until 4.30pm and is open to anyone affected by cancer and their carers.

We provide a safe, informative and supportive space where patients, past and present and their carers can get together and share experiences and support one another. The Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre is the perfect place to host this group as we have many complementary therapists, all of whom are really supportive of what we’re trying to achieve. We are hoping that people affected by cancer will find these talks interesting and useful.

Our second talk takes place on Thursday 25th June and will give people an opportunity to meet some of our therapists and also try a free taster if you’d like to.

Sara Waplington, Centre co-ordinator explained “We are able to offer some cancer patients and carers free complementary therapies and we’re hoping to receive more funding to enable us to expand this service. We are really hopeful that with a burst of energy we can reach out to and support more people struggling with cancer”

Please call Sara at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre for more information or to book a place on 01297 32331 or email at sara@axminsterwellbeing.com. More information about the Centre is available on our website at www.axminsterwellbeing.com. We would also be interested to hear from anyone who would be able to volunteer any time to help the group in any way or anyone who thinks they could offer an interesting talk to the group or has any ideas about what people would find interesting.

theWI Women’s Institutes ROUND UP Talk on Seale-Hayne

SEATON

SEATON WI’s June meeting opened with the singing of Jerusalem, accompanied on the piano by Mary Fone.

At the beginning of the business session, recently elected president Denise England thanked the committee for all their hard work in making the streaming of the WI Centenary AGM at Seaton Town Hall such a successful and enjoyable day.

She continued by reading expressions of thanks received from the 12 WI groups who attended.

Members were reminded of the arrangements for the Seaton Tram trip on July 14th.

Provisional numbers were also taken for a trip on the West Somerset Railway in September.

The results of the flower of the month competition were: 1st Zelma Lindsay-Smith, 2nd Jan Probert and 3rd Denise England.

The guest speaker was Emily Van Bliet from the Dame Hannah Rogers Trust. She was an engaging speaker and spoke enthusiastically about the work of the trust, with particular reference to Seale-Hayne (a 92 acre site near Newton Abbot) which provides an extensive range of activities and excellent facilities for children and adults with a wide spectrum of disabilities.

The next meeting will be held on July 21st at 2.15pm in Seaton Methodist Church Hall and new members are very welcome to attend.

HONITON AFTERNOON

SHEILA Denny gave a very entertaining report of her visit to the Buckingham Palace WI Garden Party which she, along with the 8,000 other WI members, thoroughly enjoyed.

Many of the ladies lost their beautiful headwear in the extremely windy conditions when back out in the road, some disappearing under the wheels of passing transport!

The police appeared to have had some difficulty enforcing the no camera rule, with many ladies using their mobile phones to capture the moment.

Carol Smyth from Acorn Befriending gave a very enlightening talk about the work of this very worthwhile group, who are active in the Honiton area.

The 26 befrienders visit people who are socially isolated in their own homes due to their circumstances, spending an hour or so chatting to them on a weekly basis.

The names of the clients are obtained from local professionals.

The next meeting of Honiton Afternoon WI is on Monday, July 13th, with a visit from Devon Freewheelers.

COLYFORD AND DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB

COLYFORD and District Flower Club held an open meeting on June 2nd at Colyford Memorial Hall, where national demonstrator Margaret Fairhurst was welcomed.

Margaret has always loved flowers and started arranging in 1971. From then on, she has travelled around the world to exhibitions, competitions, shows and demonstrations and has a very wide knowledge.

Her demonstration in Colyford was titled “Nature’s Beauty” and she started with a rustic basket with tall delphiniums, ferns from the hedgerow, blue ceanothus, hosta leaves, lupins, alliums and peonies to form a lovely arrangement.

She then used a very large piece of driftwood collected from the beach on an iron stand and used elaeagnus, foxgloves, large heads of marble white prunus, oriental pink lilies, pink carnations, purple lisianthus with fascia and hosta leaves, all linked to a similar arrangement at the base by a purple clematis.

The next display had a South African theme using a large cooking pot, tall phormium leaves, some dyed palm leaves, aspidistra and palm as a background. Margaret then added orange roses and a pinky-orange proteus.

Next came a red and green arrangement, using a stand surrounding an old heather root. Margaret used mostly greenery, such as fatsia, bougainvillea, phormium, completing the display with anastasia chrysanthemums and red roses in the centre.

Margaret then used a very tall, glass vase with some purple sisal inside, with a cascade of vinca ivy, fine fern, hostas and variegated photinia.

She then added lisianthus, lavender and a very unusual lavender colored rose called Ocean Spray.

The final arrangement was a very large one using a china pot with spiraea, variegated euonymus, viburnum, alchemilla mollis and hosta leaves and, creating a centre of colour, single peonies in cerise and peach avalanche roses.

A vote of thanks was given by Janet Durrant. There was no member competition this month but these will resume on July 7th with the theme ‘Gardeners’ World’.

The meeting will be titled ‘Glorious Garden’ and the speaker will be Gretchen White from Bishopsteignton, at 2.15pm in Colyford Memorial Hall.

■ DO YOU LIKE WRITING? Seaton Scribblers is a friendly, supportive group of men and women who would welcome new members.

This informal group meets every second Friday morning at The Gateway. The next meeting is Friday (June 26th) from 10am-12noon.

No experience necessary, simply a love of writing – or a long held yearning to write – and a sense of fun!

Just turn up or, if you would like more information, contact Di Pavey 01297 23238.

■ THE expansion of Cranberries Luxury Hideaway in Kilmington continues apace with planning approval for a restaurant.

An old garage will be demolished to make space for a two-storey, 80-seat restaurant.

Owner Steven Littley hopes to open it at the end of July, saying the building will be in keeping with the rest of the complex and made of local stone, slate and wood-cladding.

The restaurant will feature a tablet ordering system, which means that customers will key in their order on a tablet at the table as opposed to ordering from a waitress/waiter.

Mr Littley said: “A waitress will still bring the food but you order by tablet.”

He is in the process of recruiting and said that the restaurant will generate up to 16 full-time jobs plus part-time positions.

The complex at Hills Farm currently features a new nine-bedroom hotel-style facility (including a honeymoon suite) and ten cottages for self-catering.

At any given time, the accommodation side can house 78 people.

The nine-bedroom facility was partly financed by a £150,000 Rural Development Programme for England (managed by DEFRA) grant.

Cranberries also have a newly opened four-treatment-room spa complete with steam bath/shower, jacuzzi and hydrotherapy bath.

Same music, new name

THE Swing of the Axe band has changed name to Jurassic Coasters to avoid confusion with a heavy metal outfit.

The band was formed in 2010 by its present leader, Mike Tyler, originally to play at a charity coffee morning in Kilminster.

At that event the band was asked to play at the Kilminster village fete and has successfully moved on since.

Mr Tyler said: "The former name caused confusion and its title meant little outside the Axminster area, and also gave the impression it was a heavy metal band."

"However, the name Swing of the Axe will be retained for purposes archival and administrative."

"The swing style of music, including that of Glenn Miller, and popular bands of the 1930s and 1940s, is not represented by many small bands, thus enabling the Jurassic Coasters to fill an important niche."

The band has performed at events across the south of England, including dances, weddings, anniversaries, local festivals, corporate and public events, Christmas parties and working with many charities.

More information about the band can be found at www.jurassiccoasters.uk or on 01297 34958.

In depth investigation needed into council's behaviour

PULMAN'S View From on June 9th reported on my public speaking to EDDC's full council, where the council chairman decided he did not wish to hear my concerns and stopped me from speaking. Since the council is not interested, I would like to summarise my concerns in a letter.

The background to this is a Freedom of Information request submitted by East Devon resident Jeremy Woodward back in early 2013, seeking information on the council's Knowle relocation project. The Freedom of Information Act is designed to ensure that public bodies operate in an open and transparent manner by allowing citizens to request information, which the council is obliged to provide unless it qualifies under one of a limited number of exemptions.

This request for information was refused by EDDC and a complaint to the Information Commissioner was upheld, but EDDC still did not want to publish information and appealed. The appeal was heard by a court in August 2014, and they finally issued a judgement in March 2015. In this judgement (which is available from the court's website at <http://goo.gl/emjOUY> and which I encourage people to read for themselves and form their own opinions) says:

"This tribunal takes the unusual and unfortunate step of commenting on the conduct of the appeal itself. ... It was not until March 2015 that a fully legible copy of the disputed information was supplied and seemed to be complete. This is, in our collective experience, wholly exceptional and the time spent dealing with what we believe to be five different sets of disputed information is simply not a good use of the tribunal's time nor fair, in terms of delay, to the requester.

"Correspondence on behalf of the council, rather than ensuring the tribunal was assisted in its function, was at times discourteous and unhelpful including the statement that we had the most legible copies possible. A statement, which was clearly inaccurate as subsequently, we have been provided with perfectly legible documents.

"We believe this appeal could and should have been dealt with completely at the hearing in August 2014 and the decision promulgated six months ago had the council discharged its responsibilities properly."

So, the tribunal wanted legible documents, but the council prevaricated, providing five different versions of certain documents (presumably of varying legibility), and made a statement about the availability of legible versions which was later found to be inaccurate. (Or, as the "man on the omnibus" might say, they were caught out in a lie.)

Moreover, since for some years documents have typically been provided electronically from which copies are freshly printed on laser printers when required - the days of illegible carbon copies of type-written documents or poor quality photocopying are well past. So the "man on the omnibus" might reasonably infer that the council deliberately created illegible copies to submit to the court, and when the court insisted on legible copies they were in the end forced to supply them.

I am not a lawyer, but it seems to me that submitting illegible documents when legible ones were available, perhaps even deliberately creating illegible versions, may be contrary to one or more laws and which needs to be investigated by an independent organisation.

So imagine my surprise when the chief executive announced in council on May 27th that this would be investigated by the monitoring officer, who is also the head of the legal department - a decision with the potential for a significant conflict of interest since the legal department is likely to have been involved in the submission of evidence to the tribunal.

What I wanted to know on June 3rd was why the council leadership felt it appropriate to have an internal review by an officer with potential conflicts of interest rather than a police investigation into improper and possibly illegal behaviour - but unfortunately I was prevented from asking that.

The court also considered the council to be "discourteous and unhelpful" which delayed the judgement by "six-months" - giving the appearance that EDDC deliberately prevaricated and subverted the court process in order to keep the information secret beyond the formal decision to relocate taken on March 25th.

In a BBC Devon radio interview on June 4th, council leader Paul Diviani explained this away by saying that this was an individual and not the council itself that might (and only might) have been discourteous, and that the individual has apologised (with the presumption that a private apology to the tribunal is sufficient to wipe the slate clean) - but we don't know whether that individual was a councillor or a senior officer, and given the seriousness of the court's comments most people might expect this individual to have gone through a more formal - and open - disciplinary process.

This court judgement was also followed a couple of weeks later by an entirely separate ICO Decision Notice which was equally critical of the council's behaviour - yet at no point has there been any apology to the citizens wrongly refused this information.

So, rather than have independent, open and transparent reviews of the tribunal's "unusual and unfortunate" comments, we have an internal review by a potentially conflicted officer, and rather than a formal disciplinary hearing for the person who brought the council into serious disrepute by being "discourteous and unhelpful", he makes a (conditional) apology and is allowed to stay anonymous and continue in office without any real consequences. So neither the council, nor the individuals concerned can or will be held to account for lies, false (and possibly falsified) evidence, delaying tactics and clear disrespect for the law and its due processes.

These judgements show a council acting in a thoroughly disgraceful manner to avoid being accountable, and whose response is to continue to avoid being held accountable. What is needed is an in-depth investigation by a truly independent body in order to reassure the public that our council is acting in a correct and responsible manner.

Volunteers needed for Home Library Service

HOME Library Service volunteers choose books, CDs and "talking books" and deliver them to people who are no longer able to get to the library themselves.

We need more volunteers in this area and I would love to hear from anyone who would like to consider this volunteering role.

The service is provided by Royal Voluntary Service (formerly WRVS) volunteers working with Devon Libraries. We not only visit people in their own homes, but also individuals who are in residential accommodation.

It is very rewarding and is a great way to make friends, not only with the other volunteers, but also with the people receiving the service. For the volunteers, just a couple of hours every two or three weeks can make such a difference to a housebound person.

Our volunteers need to be keen readers, friendly and outgoing. RVS will pay travel and parking expenses connected with the role.

Do get in touch with me if you are would like to know more about volunteering with us, or if you are unable to get to the library and would like to receive our service. Please phone Honiton Library on 01404 42818, or email me, ejtwinning@gmail.com. I look forward to hearing from you.

Our Vision for September 2015

OUR communication and language unit has proved to have a positive impact on children's learning and development.

Our following principles are;
Children take the lead over their learning.

The environment becomes a third teacher.

A triangle exists between the Early Years education, parent and children.

We truly listen to children, documenting their dialogue and development, then the children children's interests fuel future projects.

In September we will be challenging Literacy in boys with a range of exciting new activities. Our music therapy lessons driven by Music Seeds will continue, alongside our running club, physical education lessons by the Axe Beacon Federation sports coach and our Teddy Bear nature walks.

We have spaces available from September, please book early.

Pink Hippo Day Nursery

PINK Hippo Day Nursery & Pre-school continues to offer high quality education and care for children in both its 9 place nursery and 31 place pre-school. Due to the strong bonds formed with families and a focus on self-help skills, children who remain with Pink Hippo throughout their early years are confident, ready and able to take the big step to move on to school and greater independence.

The dynamic curriculum and learning intentions are always based around children's individual interests and needs, with an emphasis on the children having a 'hands on' learning experience. Outings into our local community are key to achieving this including Axe Estuary Wetlands, the Donkey Sanctuary, Library, Fire Station and School.

Funded (free) sessions to eligible 2, 3 and 4 year olds are available and the setting has the flexibility to provide ongoing and wrap around care for working parents or those who would simply like their child to socialise with others in a safe, stimulating and fun environment.

Pink Hippo was rated 'Outstanding' in their last Ofsted inspection .... "Children play in a stimulating environment where they are very happy, and there is a happy buzz of activity, songs and laughter throughout the nursery."

St John's International School

THE Nursery Department at St John's in Sidmouth strives to provide an environment where children can explore, question, investigate, create and imagine.

Nursery follows the EYFS curriculum overlaid with the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme for which St John's has accreditation.

The PYP encourages the development of the child as an inquirer and runs from Nursery through to Year 6 of St John's.

Children are encouraged to learn through play and exploration, using the main activity room, sand and craft area and their secure outside area. Our nursery pupils are also able to benefit from using the wider school grounds and facilities wherever possible. Taking lunch in the main school, learning Spanish with the Senior students and joining in with main school events such as Comic Relief, European Day of Languages and Book Week, gives our nursery pupils great confidence and allows for a smooth transition to Reception when the time comes.

MY DAY AT NURSERY

Whether they are learning Spanish, baking, gardening, counting, reading, enjoying a cooked lunch or simply playing, our nursery pupils are able to make the most of their own secure nursery department and the wider facilities of St John's School. To find out more call 01395 513984 and ask for Nursery, email contact.stjohns@iesmail.com or visit www.stjohnsdevon.co.uk.

Beaminster School

We are proud of our school and its achievements across the entire curriculum.

WE ARE fortunate to have good facilities, high standards of teaching, and supportive, caring staff. As a small, rural school, we know our students as individuals and can ensure that each of them reaches their full potential in whatever field that may be. Our parents tell us that their children feel safe and supported here, and we encourage our parents to play an active part in their child's education.

We have excellent partnerships with our feeder primary schools and the wider community with many students joining us from outside our catchment area.

We can offer a wide range of extra-curricular activities from sporting events, music and the arts to the Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme, along with fantastic opportunities for international trips – we have students off to Borneo for a month this summer, another trip going to New York in the spring, and our bi-annual 3 week trip to India running again later in the year.

We have a successful joint Sixth Form (with the Sir John Colfox School in Bridport) and our exciting new link with Yeovil College starting this year means that we will be able to offer students an even broader choice of study options.

The Woodroffe School

Woodroffe Sixth Form geographers study the Jurassic Coast

TWENTY Woodroffe Sixth Form Geography students have just returned from spending three days investigating geographical issues in East Dorset in preparation for their AS exams. Key questions included what are the pressures facing Studland from both tourism and Sea Level Rise? What impact has the new surf reef at Boscombe had on the town itself? And how is the Jurassic Coast managed? Through techniques such as GIS analysis, photo and map annotation, environmental quality surveys and of course some statistics in the evenings, they investigated these issues and came to their own conclusions.

This is a very intensive Geographical experience with students working from early morning until late into the evening. Throughout the trip the Woodroffe

Sixth Form students demonstrated decision making skills and teamwork in order to collect and analyse their data. A big well done to the Sixth formers for working so hard and good luck to them all in their exams, they thoroughly deserve it.

What is always evident is that although there are many exciting places to see and visit around the world, there are also as equally interesting Geographical issues right on our doorstep. A stroll along the South West footpath can throw up some very interesting questions!

I stayed at Woodroffe because I know everyone and feel safe. I took part in clubs, team sports and jazz band and wanted to continue with the many extra-curricular activities here. This year I'm part of the 45 mile Ten Tors Team and run with the cross country club.

Ellie

I feel part of a big family here, there's always someone to support us from both staff and students. I look forward to school each day and am confident that I'll leave equipped to pursue my ambitions.

Curtis

I came to Woodroffe from another school and struggled to keep up with my A levels but with the help of Mrs Cropp, the 6th form librarian, I'm managing quite well. The students made me welcome and the social life is good.

Caitlin

Having previously aspired to come to Woodroffe for 6th Form, I made the decision to stay at my current school. After three days in their 6th form I knew it wasn't for me and made the decision to start at Woodroffe. I was welcomed with open arms by students and staff and quickly became involved. I sing with the choir, do lots of sport and have joined the French exchange.

The sixth form offers:

- A uniquely supportive and friendly environment
- A wide range of A-Level courses
- Excellent facilities, including a large common room and a dedicated sixth form library
- Highly skilled teaching staff
- A very low drop out rate compared to other institutions
- A fantastic range of extra-curricular activities
- Intensive support with university applications

Ofsted described the sixth form as 'a highly successful sixth form' with 'dedicated and passionate leadership', and noted that 'Students who join the sixth form from other schools are welcomed equally and settle in quickly'.

The Woodroffe School is:

- A high attaining academic institution
- A National Teaching School
- A Cultural Education Lead School
- Ofsted 'outstanding' for the quality of Teaching
- A National Maths Hub

Students join us from all over Dorset, Devon and Somerset. Students who leave us in Year 11 to join other institutions often return after a few weeks away!

ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday 27 June 2015

A chance to show your support and #SaluteOurForces for all they do

National Armed Forces Day 2015

What?

Armed Forces Day is a chance to show your support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community: from currently serving troops to Service families, veterans and cadets. There are many ways for people, communities and organisations across the country to show their support and get involved, from attending an event or joining us online to throwing a party or local event.

When?

Armed Forces Day takes place on Saturday 27 June.

Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 22 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country.

Reserves Day on Wednesday 24 June will provide an opportunity for the country to recognise our Reserve Forces.

Where?

The National Event will be held in Guildford and local events will be taking place across the country.

Why?

Showing support for the Armed Forces provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families. You can find out more about what they are doing at home and around the world by visiting the official sites of the Royal Navy, British Army and Royal Air Force. The public show their support for the Armed Forces on Armed Forces Day, but did you know the Armed Forces Covenant outlines how the Government, businesses and communities support Armed Forces personnel past and present throughout the year?

Who?

The Armed Forces
The UK Armed Forces defend the UK and its interests. They are busy working around the world, promoting peace, delivering aid, tackling drug smugglers, providing security and fighting terrorism.

Veterans

A veteran is anyone who has served in the HM Armed Forces at any time (including National Servicemen, Regulars and Reserves). Armed Forces Day celebrates their continued role within the military community.

You can find out more information about support for Veterans on the Veterans-UK website or by calling Veterans UK on 0808 1914 218.

Reservists

Reservists give up their spare time to serve in the Reserve Forces, balancing their civilian life with a military career to ensure that should their country require them, they would be ready to serve.

An annual Reserves Day celebrates their contribution to the Armed Forces and this year takes place on Wednesday 24 June.

Cadets

The Cadet Forces (Sea Cadets, Army Cadets, Air Cadets and the Combined Cadet Force) currently support over 130,000 young people in more than 3,000 locations across the UK. Cadets learn life and career building skills as well as gaining vocational qualifications.

Families

Our Armed Forces couldn't do their job without the incredible support of their family and friends.

Charities

Although Armed Forces Day is not a charitable event, the Armed Forces have the support of several UK charities and many local events will offer opportunities to support them. ## The Royal British Legion

Who We Are

The Legion is a big family - all supporting the Armed Forces community.

- We are a benevolent charity giving help to those most in need;
- A membership organisation providing support to 360,000 members;
- A campaigning organisation challenging those in authority;
- A fundraising organisation reliant on a huge network of volunteers;
- The nation's custodian of Remembrance

Members

Members of the Legion care about the lives of the Armed Forces family, past, present and future.

Our members don't all have a Service background but they do share comradeship and common goals. They add strength to the impact of our campaigning work; shape the way the charity itself evolves; enjoy concessions, social and sports events; give time to help our beneficiaries and fundraise for the Poppy Appeal.

Volunteers

Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Legion. There are lots of ways people help as a volunteer, depending on their circumstances.

Some volunteer throughout the year or just during the Poppy Appeal. Some work with our fundraising teams either on their own event or with their company, group, cadet unit, university or regiment. Other volunteers help our welfare teams, delivering the vital support we provide to the Armed Forces family.

Throughout the UK

The Royal British Legion provides support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families via with offices throughout England, Wales, Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland and in partnership with Poppyscotland. We also have an extensive network of branches throughout the UK and overseas.

Summer Rep Season launches with Hay Fever

WEEKLY rep returns to the Manor Pavilion Theatre in Sidmouth next week, when The Summer Rep Season 2015 opens with a new production of Noel Coward's 'Hay Fever' from Thursday, June 25th to Wednesday, July 1st 2015.

The Summer Rep Season sees one company of actors present a season of twelve classic revivals throughout summer, with a new production each week until the end of September.

Season producer Paul Taylor-Mills said today: "This is my third year producing the Summer Rep Season at the Manor Pavilion Theatre, and this is by far the most ambitious. Audiences can expect West End production values and phenomenal performances from our repertory cast. Hay Fever is the perfect summer treat and a brilliant way to launch this year's season".

Set in 1925, Noel Coward's Hay Fever is a quintessentially English comedy set in the country estate of the eccentric Bliss family. From Judith, the recently retired but once glittering star of the London stage, to her husband David, an egocentric novelist, and their two Bohemian adult children Sorel and Simon, they are everything a respectable English family shouldn't be. When each member of the family invites a guest to their rural retreat, the unfortunate weekend guests – a diplomat, a flapper, a fan and a vamp – are repeatedly thrown into scenes of chaos, misjudged meetings, secret seductions and scandalous revelations during one outrageous weekend in Berkshire.

With its wit, precision and sheer outrageousness, Noel Coward's Hay Fever has been a favourite among theatre goers since it first dazzled London's West End in 1925.

The cast features Nova Skipp as Judith Bliss, Francis Adams as David Bliss, Evie Lockley as Sorel Bliss, John Askew as Simon Bliss, Hannah Vesty as Myra Arundel, Russell Anthony as Richard Greathan, Sarah Dungworth as Jackie Coryton, Ethan Chapples as Sandy Tyrell and Julie Ross as Clara.

Hay Fever is directed by Lillie Collier.

The Summer Rep Season 2015 is directed by Paul Taylor-Mills (Out of Order), Lillie Collier (Hay Fever, Boeing Boeing), Stuart Burrows (Amy's View, Rope), Andrew Beckett (Joking Apart,

The Mating Game, Hound of the Baskervilles), Max Reynolds (September Tide), James Murphy (Sweet Revenge, Wait Until Dark) and James Pellow (The Importance of Being Earnest). It is produced by Paul Taylor-Mills and Lillie Collier with Associate Producer Kylie Vilcins. It is designed by David Shields with costumes designs by Barbara Williams and lighting by Tony Hill.

Performances takes place at 8pm each day (no performance on Sunday). Tickets are £15/£14 adults, and £8 for under 16s, and season tickets are available. For more details call 01395 514413 or visit www.manorpavilion.com

Jazz in July at the Arts Centre

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is jazzing up July with a mini music festival dedicated to the world of jazz. There will be a concert every Friday night in July, each one showcasing a different style of jazz, from ragtime to the soulful rhythms of Southern Blues via the urban cool of 1950s bebop and the infectious riffs of modern mainstream jazz.

On Friday, July 3rd Mike Denham hosts his 16th SpeakEasy at the Arts Centre. With special guest John Wurr, they will be playing tunes from the dawn of jazz through to the 1950s, featuring vintage ragtime and tunes from Tin Pan Alley and Broadway.

On Friday, July 10th the Chris Gumbley Quintet will be 'playing tribute' to the great 'Cannonball Adderley', a legendary saxophonist in the exhilarating 'hardbop' style of the 1950s and 60s.

The concert on Friday, July 17th welcomes the last of the original Louisiana bluesmen, Li'l Jimmy Reed to Ilminster for a mesmerizing evening of authentic Southern blues of the style that influenced so many in the 1960s, such as the Rolling Stones.

On Friday, July 24th two superlative Scottish jazz musicians perform their dazzling interpretations of the great American songbook. Saxophonist Tommy Smith and Brian Kellock on piano have been wowing audiences from Montreal to Edinburgh with their beautiful, accessible music – now it's Ilminster's turn.

'Jazz in July' concludes on Friday, July 31st with a performance of feel-good mainstream jazz by the ever-ebullient Digby Fairweather and his Half Dozen. Guaranteed to lift the spirits and set the joint jumping!

'Jazz in July' organizer Tony Hayward says, "These concerts are a fantastic way of exploring the world of jazz in its many moods, and we are delighted to be welcoming such a wealth of high-calibre musicians to the Arts Centre."

Delicious pre-show suppers are available for all "Jazz in July" concerts – these are very popular with audiences and must be booked in advance. For more information and to book, please contact the Arts Centre Box Office on 01460 54973.

Tickets range in price from £12-£20. For more details or to book visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk or call 01460 55783.

Peco's Midsummer Night's Dream

A VERY different type of event will take place in the grounds at Pecorama on the evening of Saturday, June 27th, when the Inn Theatre Company will perform Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'.

The 30-strong Company will perform the popular family play at the Top Spot stage. Ticket holders will be encouraged to bring along their own picnics and bottles of bubbly and soak up the atmosphere, in what we hope will be the first of many such events.

The Theatre Company were first formed in 2002 by a group of friends having a drink in the Cherub Inn in Dartmouth (hence the name) and their first open-air Shakespearean production was 'Twelfth Night' at Dartmouth Castle in 2003.

The woman whose idea it was originally, Jane Windsor-Smith, is the company's present Artistic Director. Every year since the formation, the company have strived to improve and take bold steps in their presentation of Shakespeare, always seeking to make it more accessible and to give lie to the oft-voiced opinion that 'Shakespeare is too difficult to understand for a modern audience'. That they have succeeded is beyond question. Their patron, Michael Corbridge, senior voice and text coach for the Royal Shakespeare Company says this of them:

The Inn Theatre Company has been affiliated to the Royal Shakespeare Company since 2011 and their Dartmouth Shakespeare Week production for 2015 is the sublimely silly and anarchic 'The Merry Wives of Windsor'. And once again they are pushing themselves above and beyond, testing their own limits. Directed by the supremely talented Jill Brock, who also played Katherina in The Shrew.

Do not worry about the weather; should poor weather prevail, ticket holders will be seated under cover of the Peco Marquee.

Tickets are limited so advance booking is advisable. Adults £10 Children £8, with tickets on the gate being Adults £12 and children £10. Please call on 01297 21542 to book! Gate opens at 6.30pm.

Clive Smith and Arcadia Jazz to open Music in the Garden season

WEEKLY Saturday morning free 'Music in the Garden' events in the beautiful Courtyard Garden at the Old Courthouse, Church Street, Axminster will be launched by the ever popular Clive Smith and his Arcadia Jazz Band on Saturday, June 27th from 11am - 1pm.

This event has become an annual highlight for many people; with a cross-section of musical events taking place each Saturday morning throughout July, August and September. A programme is printed here and can also be obtained from the Arts Café.

A visit to Axminster is not complete without going to the historic grade II listed Old Courthouse building, complete with two old police cells. A warm welcome and some tasty menu options await you at the Arts Café. Gluten-free bread and cakes as well as soya milk are always available. Dogs on leads are welcome in the courtyard garden, where there is also plenty of space for cyclists' bikes. Colouring sheets are available to keep children amused, while they are waiting for their food. Every visit you make to the Arts Café will help Axminster Arts carry on using part of the Old Courthouse: a special piece of Axminster's heritage, as well as giving support to 'the Arts' in Axminster.

ReView: CLOKS Guys and Dolls dress rehearsal

MEMBERS of Chard Local Kids Society for Music and Drama (CLOKS) will show off their talents in a sparkling production of the famous 1950s Broadway musical about New York gangsters and their 'dolls'.

The story of how shy, mission preacher Sister Sarah Brown (Otterly Farey bringing a sweetness and calm reserve to the role) and inveterate gambler Sky Master-son (John Davis, understated but quietly convincing) unexpectedly fall in love provides the central plot line but the comic, ongoing 14 year-long engagement between crap playing Nathan Detroit (Jake Crump, loud, lying, cheating but warm at heart) and his cabaret artist, the long-suffering Miss Adelaide (Grace Evans giving an excellent, bright, lively performance) offers a more down-to-earth idea of love and marriage.

The production has some great song and dance numbers. I loved 'Sit Down You're Rocking the Boat' in which the whole cast, led by Gabriel Swarbrick's accomplished Nicely Nicely Johnson, worked particularly well as an ensemble. There were also some lovely duets; Otterly Farey and John Davis were charming in both of theirs whereas Jake Crump and Grace Evans offered something more sparky and combative.

Musical direction was by Jonathan Farey, assisted by his daughter Jemima, and yet again this CLOKS production boasted impressively high standards for the musical numbers. Producer, director and choreographer Maria Farey always works wonders with her cast of over 40 youngsters and this production is well worth seeing - this is amateur youth theatre of which Chard should be immensely proud.

If you haven't been to a production before I urge you to go and see what this young company can offer. It's a good evening's entertainment; shoe-tapping songs, well-paced production and the sort of energy and enthusiasm which only young people can generate. See the advert below for performance details.

Chard Local Kids Society for Music and Drama

CLOKS is a youth theatre group providing an affordable way for children aged 8 - 18 to sing, act, dance and become involved in all aspects of theatre.

It is run by a group of volunteers who work together to make a safe and fun environment for the children. They run workshops, take part in various fund raising concerts, put on one major production a year in June and a smaller fund raising Christmas show. They actively encourage team building and group work and the main aim is for the children to have fun. Rehearsals and performances of the June show are in Chard, making it easy for parents and children. CLOKS helps the children to gain confidence and build self esteem whilst providing entertainment for the community.

YOUR WEEKLY GUIDE TO THE PROPERTY MARKET

HARRIS Lets is pleased to announce that Kerry Hopson has passed Unit 1 Health and Safety, Security and General Law & Unit 2 Legal Aspects of Letting and Management of the NFoPP Level 3 Technical Award in Residential Letting and Property Management. This is part of the Harris Lets continued staff development and training structure. Our training structure is in place to ensure the best possible service and knowledge is available to our clients.

Both our Axminster and Seaton offices now have ARLA qualified Letting Agents in situ. You can be safe in the knowledge that we will expertly guide you through the letting process and legal minefield that is involved in letting your property.

Kerry says "I started working as an apprentice in January 2011 aged 24 having no previous experience in the lettings industry. Through perseverance, determination and help from my employer and colleagues I learnt quickly and built good relationships with our landlords, tenants and contractors.

Recently, I have worked more in our Axminster office learning new routines and procedures as well as different landlords and tenants which has been an exciting challenge and honourable responsibility. I look forward to completing and passing the last 2 units of the course and becoming a professional, registered ARLA agent.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mike Harris, my colleagues, friends and family for their continued support".

Harris Lets has been trading in Axminster for some 6 years and Seaton for 18 months. Our business is going from strength to strength with service and local knowledge that cannot be matched.

We offer unrivalled value for money with the tenant find service being just 60% of the first month's rent and our full management service is 10% of the monthly rental.

We will not charge any set up, marketing or miscellaneous administration fee's and offer excellent customer service whilst delivering an efficient professional service to our landlord's.

If our standard letting packages are not for you we can tailor make them to suit your individual requirements.

Our marketing strategy is to be seen! We use the Midweek Herald and ViewFrom Series of newspapers, 'To Let' boards and fliers, our own easy to use website, Zoopla and Prime Location property portals for the further afield clients and more tech savvy amongst us!

For a free no obligation market appraisal please contact us without delay.

Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles Unveils New California

VOLKSWAGEN Commercial Vehicles is set to kick-start the summer holiday season with the official unveiling of the new California. Based on the recently revealed Transporter T6, the new California remains the only factory-built camper van on the market, and offers a host of improvements and new features for buyers who want the ultimate home from home.

The new California is the fourth model to bear the name, and builds on the strengths of its highly successful predecessors. The range incorporates all the key features introduced on the new Transporter T6, including new, more efficient engines that are up to 15 per cent more economical than the outgoing units. The new California also features a range of advanced technologies designed to make life safer and even more enjoyable for occupants. These include driver assistance systems, a completely refreshed infotainment system and the availability of adaptive suspension.

The launch engine range includes both diesel and petrol options, along with DSG and 4MOTION four-wheel-drive derivatives. Power outputs for UK models range from 102 PS for the entry-level 2.0-litre TDI engine (Beach models only) up to 204 PS for the 2.0-litre TSI petrol unit (Ocean models only).

Naturally, the new California retains the legendary practicality and storage ingenuity of its predecessor. Available in two forms; Beach and Ocean (which replaces the current SE model), the California can sleep four occupants courtesy of its acclaimed pop-up roof (electro-hydraulic on Ocean models) that neatly integrates a 1.2m x 2m double bed. Ocean models also feature a fully-equipped kitchen, complete with 42-litre refrigerator, twin-burner hob and stainless steel sink unit. Ocean models also gain a dimmable LED lighting system for the pop-up roof and tailgate and a clever multi-functional holder for the rear compartment that incorporates a cup, ashtray and towel holder all in one.

Driver and passenger safety is another area where the new California excels. Among the many advanced features introduced on the fourth-generation models are a Driver Alert System, Brake Assist and an Automatic Post-Collision Braking System. The former is fitted as standard on all models and can detect any deviation from normal steering patterns. If deviation is detected, the system uses visual and acoustic warnings to recommend that the driver takes a break. Brake Assist adds another layer of security by registering the speed at which the brake pedal is pressed. During emergency braking, it ensures full brake pressure is applied more quickly. Finally, Volkswagen's acclaimed Automatic Post-Collision Braking System triggers braking after a collision, with the aim of preventing secondary collisions. After a short delay, the vehicle begins a phased braking action down to 6mph, during which the driver can take control at any time.

UK prices and final specifications for the new California range will be announced shortly.

Mercedes-Benz: An SUV that fits the bill to perfection

THE second generation of the mid-range SUV from Mercedes-Benz goes by the name of GLC and represents a big step forward on several fronts: On a technical level the new SUV clearly makes its mark with the excellent standard of safety that is a brand hallmark, featuring state-of-the-art assistance systems and outstanding energy efficiency. Fuel consumption has been cut by up to 19 per cent in comparison to the previous model. At the same time, the AIR BODY CONTROL multi-chamber air suspension that is without parallel in this segment, the extended range of DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic transmission modes and the 4MATIC permanent all-wheel drive increase not only the ride comfort, but also the vehicle's sporty agility – whatever surface it is driving on. Visually, the body follows the clear and sensual design idiom which was demonstrated so successfully by the GLC Coupé showcar concept in the spring, and which serves as the standard for future SUV families.

"Our new GLC represents a further, systematic step in the implementation of our successful SUV philosophy. It combines the ultimate in driving comfort with a sporty touch, impresses on the road and – more than ever – off it as well, and appeals to the eye with the new design and equipment line," says Thomas Weber, member of the Management Board of

▲ Mercedes-Benz GLC

Daimler AG and responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

The design philosophy behind the new GLC essentially favours sensual purity and a modern aesthetic over the classic off-road look. The dynamic design exudes emotional appeal while also employing purist forms. Surfaces embodying a degree of tension and precise lines cite the clear design line followed by all state-of-the-art SUVs from Mercedes-Benz. The GLC only represents a departure from its progenitor – the G-Class – in terms of appearance, however. On a technical level it sets new benchmarks in all disciplines – the mid-size SUV's off-road capabilities remain as outstanding as ever.

The characteristic SUV front with a short, succinct overhang, upright, three-dimensional radiator grille with a twin louvre and centrally positioned brand star follows the successful new design line. Striking headlamps, optionally available as LED High Performance lamps, lend the GLC a self-confident look which is further emphasised by their distinctive night design. The bumpers with integrated underguard come in three variants: in addition to the base version there is a version optimised for off-road use with a larger angle of approach/departure, plus a particularly sporty AMG variant.

The side view showcases the almost coupé-like greenhouse, which together with the 118 millimetres larger wheelbase lends the GLC an elegant long profile. This impression is further reinforced by the gently sloping dropping line which is a hallmark of the brand and by the powerful shoulders. The rising lower feature line also enlivens the vehicle's side view. Matt black cladding in the wings, wheels up to a size of 50.8 cm (20 inches) and the optional side running board provide clear indications of the GLC's off-road credentials.

Local sport round-up

Sidmouth toppled by league leaders

Seven up Whetlor cleaves through Clyst - Honiton 2nds march on

Honiton 1st XI v Tiverton 1st XI

HONITON looked to bounce back after last week's poor performance and, having been put into bat, they responded well scoring 228 for 8.

Pete Matravers top scored with 57, skipper Rob Ingram made 40no and Adrian Pullin 32.

In reply Tiverton managed to get over the line for the loss of eight wickets in the closing overs with Adrian Pullin taking 2 for 12. Ingram was quick to highlight why his team had lost: "Our fielding just wasn't good enough today, dropping catches costs you - we need to improve."

Honiton 2nd XI v Filleigh 2nd XI

ANDREW Lapping's men looked to took make it five wins in a row having won the toss elected to bat first.

Pete Beighton top scored with 42, Phil Tansley hit 37 in quick time, then Corey Lapping chipped in with 22 at the end to help the visitors post 170 for 9 when a smaller total looked on the cards after a flurry of wickets.

Filleigh never looked to challenge that total as they lost wickets at regular intervals. Ian Kelly (3 for 28) and Will Cowley (3 for 34) combined to take care of the main order with Richard Hill striking twice to polish off the innings.

Skipper Lapping was pleased with the work rate of his team, he said: "Our fielding and bowling is really good at the minute, which is getting the job done for us."

"We are on and roll but next week will be a good test for us in the derby match against top of the table Feniton."

Mighty Morgan

HONITON Powerlifter Chris Morgan has become a World Champion in the sport of Powerlifting for the eighth time in his career.

He was lifting in the World Single Event Championships, held in Telford and made lifts of 200kg followed by 230kg and then 250kg to clinch the "Masters 1" title at the World Deadlift Championships.

Speaking about the competition, Chris said: 'I'm delighted. The figures lifted were not amongst my best ever but this was never going to be possible after suffering a serious back injury only 12 weeks ago.

"It's been a very difficult training run to this competition and at times I didn't think I would actually make platform".

Chris will be hosting a Charity Powerlifting Event raising funds for the Motor Neurone Disease Association at Steve's Gym in Newton Abbot on Saturday, August 22nd.

The "Endurance Invitational" will see entrants compete both individually and in three person teams performing bench press and deadlift for repetitions.

End of fine season

THE Wessex Point-to-Point Area's six main awards, sponsored by Spillers Horsefeeds, will be presented at the end of season party on Friday, July 3rd.

Leading gentleman rider is Somerset-based Will Biddick, who was also crowned National Champion for the fourth time at Saturday's Torrington Farmers meeting at Umberleigh, Devon, breaking the all time national record.

Biddick rode 68 winners this season, the majority provided by Henley, near Crewkerne, handler Jack Barber, 23, the country's leading trainer with 51 successes.

Both Jack and Will are runaway winners of two of the Wessex Area championships (Leading 10+ horses Trainer and Leading Gentleman Jockey respectively).

Quantocks-based trainer Teresa Clark takes the award for yards housing nine or fewer horses for the first time, with Chloe Newman and Keith Cummings hot on her heels. Teresa saddled eight winners in Wessex during the season, including a purple patch of five consecutive winners in May.

Leading Lady Rider is Alice Mills, who has just announced her retirement from point-to-point racing to take out a professional jump and flat licence to ride under Rules.

Harry Cobden (16) who landed three National championships - the Fuller's Brewery National Mens Novice Riders title, the Dodson & Horrell Wilkinson Sword (for leading male novice under 21 rider) and the Harley Racing National novice riders' race championship - scooped the remaining two Awards.

He wins the Wessex Leading Novice Rider Award and the Wessex Leading Owner Award, largely thanks to his partnership with his own prolific Cock Of The Rock, a 10yo gelding with five of his seven wins in Wessex.

Cock Of The Rock is trained by Mosterton's Rachael Green, who netted the Connolly's Red Mills sponsored national award for yards with seven or fewer horses.

Full details of the awards, plus those already presented at meetings during the season, can be found on the Wessex Area website - www.pointingwessex.co.uk - as can further information regarding the end of season party.

Upflowman clinch cup final spot

Pool A
UNBEATEN Upflowman clinched the Pool A top spot with a 48-38 victory against Otter Valley and will now play the winner of pool B in the deciding final game at the end of the season.

By half way Upflowman had overcome their deficit to draw level at 30-30 before moving ahead in the third quarter. Viv Grant had a fine game for the leaders whilst Catherine Phillips played well for Otter Valley.

The race for second place is now between Otters and Signs South West who both have 14 points with one game left to play.

Otters defeated Tip Top Trees 56-43 but they had to work hard with Jenny Kelly the top Tree. The Otters were behind until the third quarter, but then Carol Goddard's encouragement moved Otters in front.

Signs South West kept up the pressure with a comfortable 68-43 win over Beer Blazers.

With Michaela Sydenham in fine shooting form, SSW had overcome their arrears to take the lead by a single goal at half way.

Although Amanda Partridge worked hard for the Blazers they didn't manage a score after the first period.

The final game of the evening saw Swagger Mamas defeat Sidmouth Toucans Old Birds 59-51.

Toucans, with Lucy Beksinska playing well, did start to close their deficit gap in the first two quarters and at half way were 34-46 behind.

But in the third period Lynsay Jones and Chloe Bartlett began to influence the game for the Mamas and they outscored Sidmouth to lead 54-39.

The Old Birds regained the initiative in the final session but it was too late.

Win for White

FOURTEEN members fished the Wednesday League competition at Lyme Regis for most species.

There was crystal clear water but a swell was whipped up by the wind which made fishing extremely hard with five members failing to bring fish to the scales.

The overall theme for the night was to catch a Ballan Wrasse before sunset then target the other species.

The weigh-in showed the difficult conditions with Ballan Wrasse, Dog fish and Huss being the most weighed fish, with lots of mini species also caught.

Lee Chard managed a nice Scad just before the end of the competition to secure his two points.

The results were; 1st Dave White with a (Bull Huss, Dog Fish and a Ballan Wrasse). Second place went to Ryan White (Bull Huss and Dog Fish) and Darren Herbert (Ballan Wrasse and Pout) was third.
